vs.                          )
                                  )                                  ORDER
                                  )
RUDOLPH JAMES HASTINGS, )
                                  Defendant. )

This matter is before the court on defendant's motion to continue trial [17] as counsel needs additional time to investigate and confer with the defendant. The court finds good cause being shown and the trial shall be continued. The defendant shall comply with NECrimR 12.1(a).

IT IS ORDERED that the motions to continue trial is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for February 11, 2014 is continued to April 1, 2014.
2. Defendant is ordered to file a waiver of speedy trial as soon as practicable.

3. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and April 1, 2014, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel for the defendant the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).
